

I am strongly opposed to relaxation of media ownership rules.
I am concerned that the current media consolidation and ownership of news media by a few companies is threatening our freedom of the press.